Saint Anne

&amp;

St. Joachim

I am the Mother of Mary

I am the Mother of Mary, I tell you: <Do not be afraid>, follow in the footsteps of Jesus Christ, therefore have faith in the Lord.

1. I come here as a pilgrim, Saint Anne, Mother of Mary, You have filled me with so many blessings, I come to say my Thank You.
2. On the blessed day of my baptism, Where I received life from God, You are Saint Anne, this queen, who supports me from the heights of Heaven.
3. It is you, Saint Anne, that I pray To guide all my steps, Close to you, I have learned so much, That I throw myself into your arms.
4. With the assembled Church, Which gives you thanks with full voice, From the bottom of my heart, I want to cry out:
Glory to the Lord, honor to you.
5. Let my prayer rise to Heaven, Rise to you like incense, You are the way to the eternal,
Hear the call of your child.

Editorial

Dear Readers,

On this great Feast of Saint Anne and Saint Joachim, we are happy to meet you again through this newspaper.

The month dedicated to the Most Precious Blood of Jesus ends in a few days, and we will then enter a month where several Marian feasts await us: August 5, August 15, August 22, without forgetting the other feasts: the Transfiguration, Saint Dominic our Patron Saint, Saint John Mary Vianney and others.

Let us also have a thought for the Founder who will celebrate the Anniversary of his Episcopal Ordination at the end of this month.

Many of you are welcome to register for the River Pilgrimage on August 15th. A highly important address will be given. Get involved and join us for this Marian Pilgrimage!

Wishing you a good read, and see you next week!

“Henry asks us to pray for Pope Leo XIV so that he can bring his full weight to bear against the genocide in the Gaza Strip, so that he can act, intervene, and bring about an end to the war. He also asks us to pray that His Holiness Pope Leo XIV can act, also in the situation concerning Ukraine and Moscow.”

“Dearest sisters and brothers, only this attitude makes our life flourish: opening ourselves to something that takes us away from ourselves and, at the same time, fulfills us.

At the moment when Martha complains that her sister has left her alone to serve (cf. v. 40), Mary has lost all sense of time, compared by the words of Jesus.

She is no less concrete than her sister, nor less generous. But she seizes the opportunity. This is why Jesus reprimands Martha: because she has remained outside an intimacy that would also give her

The Roses of the Madonna of Reparation

The Roman Order of Mary, Queen of France, unveiled the painting of the Madonna of Reparation on March 25, 2023. In May 2024, the first large statue representing the Madonna of Reparation was enthroned in the Chapel.

"Our Lady, dear brothers and sisters, dear friends, dear Romanists, appears in the form of a very beautiful and very young girl between 16 and 18 years old, with a very gentle gaze, a peaceful face, and clasped hands. She wears a purple-colored dress. The color of Our Lady is symbolic." "At the bottom of Our Lady's dress is a blue cross, which is part of one of Our Lady's secrets.

On his shoulder is the coat of arms of His Holiness Pope John Paul II.

When the apparitions begin, we are under the pontificate of His Holiness Pope John Paul II, and the Madonna comes to present herself as Mother of the Church, Mother of the clergy.

This apparition itself sums up the three whitenesses: the Eucharist, the Pope, and the Virgin Mary.

And the Madonna continues to appear with the coat of arms of Pope John Paul The Most Holy Virgin Mary, Madonna of Reparation, appeared in March for the first time, during Lent; this is significant because great events will occur in March. The Madonna appears with a parma-colored dress, this color is prophetic; a color for the times we live in. "In France, within the Roman Order of Mary Queen of France, the Virgin of Reparation says that She came for England; that She came to ask for the conversion of England and the parma color of her dress is the color of the English monarchy."

Excerpt from Henri's Address on March 25, 2023 - Revelation of the Image of the Madonna of Reparation

The symbolism of roses

The Madonna of Reparation appears wearing a cape; this cape is tied around her neck and along her body, on each side, there are two garlands of roses. These roses are white, yellow and red.

We find these three colors of roses in the appearance of Rosa Mystica, on her cape at the level of her neck.

These roses are symbolic.

The white rose represents the spirit of prayer, innocence, purity.

The red rose represents the spirit of sacrifice, which is the love and blood shed by martyrs.

The yellow rose represents the spirit of penance, suffering and sacrifice.

"Adding up all the roses on the Madonna's mantle, we end up with the number 18, which is symbolic, prophetic. The whole image of the Madonna is prophetic.

And these 18 roses are also part of another important Secret for the times we live in.

"Often in Apparitions, in each rosebud, letters appear to form words.

The Madonna appears with the bent knee that we can see.

The Madonna's cape ripples from side to side during each apparition, and the garland of roses begins to ripple. This ripple is important, and the Madonna explains it. She explains the meaning of these two garlands of roses.

She explains and warns like a mother; She warns Her Children of the danger that threatens the world, of the war that is coming upon us, of all the threats that seek to break order, security and global and ecclesial stability.

These two garlands of roses speak to us of what will come to melt upon Europe and what will come to melt upon unarmed Rome. The roses in movement, in undulation, the Madonna speaks to us of Russia by using the symbolism of the bear, speaks to us of China, by speaking of the symbolism of the dragon.

The Madonna proposes an 18-point peace plan. The 18 roses, for a peace plan. "The Madonna says Red roses speak of the Red Army of Russia, of a Red War; Yellow roses speak of China, of a Yellow Army, of a Yellow War; and the white roses speak of a white war, of a white Army that comes from the Roman Order." (May 13, 2023 speech by Henri)

In his speech of July 20, 2025, Henri told us that Satan's defeat lies in the number of roses on the Madonna's cape, so we know the date and the month, we just need to know the year. Satan fraudulently obtained the Victory but the war is not over. (Henri's speech of July 20, 2025) We still have so much to discover about this beautiful Virgin known under the powerful name of Mary Madonna of Reparation.

The Death of the Sleeping Prince

"At the same time, in the Middle East, on Arab soil, and more clearly in Saudi Arabia, a major armed conflict will take place, but without nuclear weapons. The sleeping prince is not a metaphor; there is a prince who had an accident and has been sleeping for years; he is being kept alive in the hospital; the death of this sleeping prince will worsen the situation in the Middle East." (Excerpt from Henri's speech, June 2, 2025)

We first learned of this sleeping prince's existence on June 2, 2025, with Henry's speech. Seventeen days later, Saudi Prince Al-Waleed bin Khalid bin Talal Al-Saud died after spending 20 years in a coma following a road accident in 2005 at the age of 36.

Let us pray, for the situation in the Middle East will deteriorate further following this event. Mary, Our Lady of Reparation, intercede for peace in the Middle East; one of your concerns is this global region.

Saudi Prince Al-Waleed bin Khaled bin Talal Al Saud, known as the "Sleeping Prince," has died at the age of 36. He spent two decades in a coma.

Withdrawal of American armed troops

For several years now, we have observed that the United States of America has chosen to withdraw its military presence from various territories.

In 2021, US military troops left Afghan territory after nearly 20 years of occupation.

In 2024, US troops left Niger following an agreement between Niger and the United States.

In 2025, the US military will withdraw from two new bases in northeast Syria in June. This withdrawal will facilitate the resurgence of the Islamic State.

President Donald Trump has repeatedly threatened to withdraw more than 100,000 troops from Europe. This threat is worrisome because Europe is not a single country; the European Union comprises 27 member states.

We note that over time the United States is withdrawing its military protection in the world.

The geopolitical situation the world finds itself in today is worrying. The withdrawal of American troops from various territories would result in a reduction of military protection in these countries; thus, these countries would be much more vulnerable to various attacks, aggressions, invasions, and the rise of terrorism.

Let us pray for Gaza, let us pray for all countries at war, let us pray that indifference disappears.

Aid to terrorism?

The Palestinian state will be recognized by France in September

This Thursday, July 24, French President Emmanuel Macron announced that he would recognize the State of Palestine in September. He believes that no other alternative for peace is possible. "I will make this solemn announcement at the United Nations General Assembly next September," the French head of state wrote on X and Instagram.

THE BUTCHER OF GAZA

There is a gentle people sacrificed under the yoke of a demonic beast from which humanity has strayed under the pretext of ancient possessions.

Visions of horror and terror to see women, children and old people being beaten and tortured. Their cries shook the sky...

What could be more odious and cowardly than attacking the innocence of defenseless, starving and horribly mutilated little beings!

Families are separated, annihilated by the deadly fire of missiles, brutally mowing them down to death. Every moment of their life is risky!

I appeal to international law, to the leaders of all countries, to stop this mad extermination. In the name of Peace and Freedom! In the name of Brotherhood among peoples!

Christine Durieu (24/07/25) In homage to the martyred people of Gaza.

Saint Anne and Saint Joachim

In this article, we will meditate on the lives of the holy spouses Joachim and Anne, parents of the Blessed Virgin Mary; we will meditate on how God united their lives. We will use as a reference the information contained in the work "The Mystical City of God" by Maria d'Agreda.

Saint Joachim and Saint Anne were two great rays of light, two spouses according to the Heart of God.

Saint Joachim had a home, family, and relatives in Nazareth, a city in Galilee. He was always a righteous and holy man, illuminated by a special grace and light. He clearly distinguished himself from all the other men of Israel. He deeply understood the Holy Scriptures, just like Anna, his future wife. Through incessant and fervent prayer, he asked God for the fulfillment of His promises. He prayed especially for the coming of the Messiah. He was a very humble and pure man, of holy conduct and great sincerity, but also very strong and severe, of incomparable dignity and honesty. He truly had a rare character.

Saint Anne, for her part, had her home in Bethlehem. She was an innocent, humble, and beautiful young girl, and, from her childhood, holy, composed, and filled with every virtue! She too prayed without ceasing for the coming of the Messiah, and her prayers greatly pleased the Lord.

This woman prayed with great fervor that the Most High would grant her a husband who would help her observe the law and be perfect in fulfilling its precepts. The glory of God must be the sole objective of every marriage! At the moment Anne asked the Lord for this, he arranged for Saint Joachim to make the same prayer, so that both holy requests were presented to God and granted at the same time. The way in which divine Providence works is impressive.

The Archangel Gabriel was then sent to reveal the Divine Will to them both. The Angel appeared physically to Saint Anne as she prayed for the coming of the Savior of the world, whose grandmother she would be, to her great joy... She saw the Angel of immense beauty and dazzling splendor.

We can imagine Saint Anne's astonishment! The Archangel Gabriel then told Anne to persevere in her prayers for the coming of the Savior and that God wished her to marry Joachim.

The Angel did not appear to Joachim and did not speak to him in person as he had to Saint Anne, but the man of God heard him in a dream.

The Angel Gabriel said, among other things, that the Lord desired his marriage to Anne.

The Angel visits Saint Anne and Saint Joachim

Thus, Joachim immediately asked for the hand of young Anne. The two holy spouses lived in Nazareth. Their works were full of virtue, which is why they were highly appreciated and accepted by the Most High. Each year, they divided their earnings and the profits from their property into three parts. The first was offered to the Lord in the temple of Jerusalem, the second was distributed to the poor, and the third was used to support their family life.

God increased their temporal goods, because they distributed them with great generosity and charity.

They lived in perfect love, so much so that they had no disagreements throughout their lives, because they always wanted to meet in their desires. We can affirm that it is impossible to achieve this, but this couple was destined for a very high mission, so...

The Lord favored Saint Anne with abundant blessings, granting her the highest gifts of grace that prepared her for the happiness that awaited her, that is, to be the mother of the Mother of God. What a great dignity! Saint Joachim and Saint Anne, pray for us!

Prayer to Saint Anne and Saint Joachim

We greet you, Anne and Joachim, visited by the tenderness of God, chosen by Him to be the parents of Mary Immaculate, and the grandparents of Jesus, Son of God.

Saint Anne and Saint Joachim, pray for us and for our families. Help us in our worries as couples, parents, grandparents and educators, today and every day, until eternal life. Amen

The History of our Earth with Mary

Notre Dame plays a pivotal role in France. The medieval era recalled that Regnum Galliae, Regnum Mariae; that is, the Kingdom of the Franks is the Kingdom of Mary. Saint Bernard of Clairvaux and his antiphons, Saint Louis Marie Grignon de Montfort and his rich treatise on true Marian devotion and finally Saint Louis de Gonzague; these three figures full of love for the Most Holy Virgin spread Her Heart with generosity.

This is already true with the consecration of 1638 and this superb promise of a very young king. On that day, February 10, France was solemnly consecrated to Mary, to Our Lady of Victories.

Then France received an extraordinary Marian epiphany. Notre Dame du Laus, La Rue du Bac, Pontmain, Pellevoisin, La Salette, Lourdes, L'Île Bouchard, Thouars and many others.

When Notre Dame appeared on Rue du Bac in 1830, the divine right of royalty no longer existed. Yet, the message had a royalist significance. The reverse of the medal features an M surmounted by a cross, an M with a horizontal bar. A closer look reveals an H with a V surmounted by a Cross. We see the alliance of the two United Hearts and twelve stars.

This is nothing other than a prefiguration of France's future mission. Saint Pius X, the Holy Father, said that France must once again become the educator of the People. This will not happen without Our Lady, and without the herald of Our Lady of our generation. At La Salette in 1846, the Blessed Virgin gave messages on Sunday observance and the cessation of swearing; and she gave secrets concerning the future king of France and the end times. At Lourdes in 1858, she appeared to confirm the third Marian dogma on the Immaculate Conception, decreed in 1854. There she asked for conversion, prayers, sacrifices, and reparations. Five secrets were given.

In Pontmain in 1871, Our Lady stopped the Prussians. She told them to turn back so as not to invade France. She appeared majestically to the children to ask them to pray for France; and at the same time, She appeared to the general of the Prussian forces to order him to turn back with his army.

At Bouchard Island, at the end of World War II, Our Lady warned of a great danger: the rise of communism could lead to a coup d'état. The Reds wanted to overthrow the government in December 1947. Through the prayers of the children of Bouchard Island, through their loyalty for seven days, the coup d'état was stopped.

With Henri and since 1990, Our Lady has been preparing souls for the end times. She arouses the 5th Marian Dogma by touching the hearts of people of good will. She gives Her Graces to develop this white and Marian army which will become Her Heel; this famous heel which will definitively crush the head of Satan. This Mission is undoubtedly the most difficult of all, because the devil will not let it happen.

Amaury BOUFFARD

Let the little children come to me

Charades

- My first was the first of the mothers.
- Suddenly the shepherds of Bethlehem saw my second.
- There is water all around my 3rd My everything is "Good News"!

My first is a rather dazzling suit. My second is a strong card. My whole is a man who passed through the belly of a fish to finally obey God!

If it is not the day after Monday or the day before Thursday, and tomorrow is not Sunday, and yesterday was not Sunday, and the day after tomorrow is not Saturday, and the day before yesterday was not Wednesday, what day is it?

- My first is a number - My second is a drink - My third comes out of the mouth with a noise - My fourth calls by his first name My whole is a book of the O.T.

A smile

A smile costs nothing and produces much, It enriches those who receive it Without impoverishing those who give it. It only lasts a moment but its memory is sometimes eternal.

No one is rich enough to do without it, No one is poor enough to be useless, No one is contemptible enough not to deserve it.

It creates happiness at home, supports in business and at work. It is a sensitive sign of friendship. A smile gives to the most discouraged.

It cannot be bought, lent or stolen, because it only has value from the moment it is given.

And if you ever meet someone who no longer knows how to smile, be generous, give them yours,

Because no one needs a smile as much as someone who cannot give one to others...

In the silence of your heart, pray that Peace may flourish again on Earth

As you look at Mary, ask Her to help you be wise, obedient, and of service to others.

Look at Jesus on the Cross, look at His suffering. To console Him, kiss Him.

Modesty in Dress

The principles of the virtues of modesty and chastity are based, above all, on the sixth and ninth commandments of God: "You shall not commit adultery" (Exodus 20:14) and "You shall not covet your neighbor's wife" (Exodus 20:14).

Furthermore, we read in the Gospel of Saint Matthew that our Divine Savior Jesus Christ repeated the ninth commandment, saying: "You have heard that it was said to those of old, 'You shall not commit adultery.' But I say to you that everyone who has looked at a woman lustfully has already committed adultery with her in his heart" (Matt. 5:27-28).

We can quote here one of the warnings of the Blessed Virgin at Fatima, Portugal, in 1917: "Certain fashions will be introduced which will greatly offend Our Lord... There are more souls going to hell because of the sins of the flesh than for any other reason."

More than 100 years have passed since the Apparitions of the Virgin at Fatima, and sadly, we see that this prophecy has been perfectly fulfilled. Heaven warns us, foresees the evil, and offers us the solution, but humanity remains deaf and hard to the calls of Our Lady, of Our Lord.

With modern technologies—television, cinema, smartphones, the internet, etc.—young people, in particular, are exposed daily to immorality, which undermines and sullies their souls. Fornication, adultery, divorce, teenage pregnancy, abortion, the open promotion of artificial contraceptives, and the increase in violent crimes against women are all consequences linked to immodesty in dress.

"I want the men, therefore, to pray wherever they are, lifting up holy hands to heaven, without anger or disputing. Let the women do the same, in modest dress, adorning themselves with modesty and reserve, not with braided hair or gold or pearls or expensive clothing, but with good works, as becomes women who profess godliness." (1 Tim. 2:8-10) For St. Thomas Aquinas, modesty is part of the virtue of temperance, which helps us moderate our desires. For him, being modest in dress means being honest in one's outward appearance, which applies to both men and women, and should enhance the beauty that God has given us. To show off but not to become an occasion of sin and ruin for souls.

The way we dress tells others who we are. St. Thomas also quotes another saint, Ambrose, who said that "the body should be adorned naturally and without affectation, with simplicity," without superfluity; and St. Francis de Sales said: "Modesty and simplicity are undoubtedly the best ornaments of beauty and the best repair of defects."

It is also essential to ensure good dress intention, avoiding provoking others and leading them to the sin of lust, impurity, whether intentionally or through the frivolity of ostentation. Modesty, however, is not just about avoiding sin and inciting others to it. The virtue of modesty in dress is a contribution to a more beautiful and decent society, and it is a reflection of the beauty of God, which deserves to be honored. In this sense, during Holy Mass, for example, it is a plus

It is a great gesture of reverence to God to dress in a particularly elegant and modest manner rather than to go dressed haphazardly. Women, girls, and children who wear the veil every time they enter the church are very commendable.

August 30, 2002 - Message from Saint Joseph to Henry

"You must teach your daughters that they must cover their heads (use the veil); you must also teach them that they must not wear trousers. Dear children, trousers are reserved for men! Be very careful! Yes, dear children, Mary, my most chaste Spouse, is the model. During her life, she never wore trousers. My children, I repeat to you that trousers are reserved for men. Pay attention to your body, pay attention to the way you dress."

Let us ask Mary, the Tota Pulchra, to grant us the grace of Her modesty, of Her purity."
